Master’s Certificate in Project Management

What Makes a Great Project Manager?
Great project managers get deliverables done on time and under budget, manage through conflict, organize, prioritize, delegate, create buy-in from their team members, and make sure everything meets the needs of their customers.

How This Master’s Certificate Will Help You
Learn how to manage larger-scale projects and practice new methods, tools, and techniques in labs so you know what works and what doesn’t. Each instructor has 24 years of real-world project management business experience, so your learning is realistic.

Who Should Attend
Individuals and teams involved in business projects across all industry sectors.

WHY BECOME A BETTER PROJECT MANAGER?

6.2 Million
project manager positions expected by 2020*

250%
Increased project success rate when proven practices are used

*Project Management Institute, 2013  Project Management Institute, 2016
Required Certificate Courses

- Project Management: Planning, Scheduling, and Control
- How to Influence Without Direct Authority
- Managing Project Risks
- Project Leadership Communication
- Project Management Capstone

Electives (choose one)

- Defining and Managing Business Requirements
- Business Process Improvement Using Lean Six Sigma and Performance Metrics
- Agile Project Management: Techniques for Iterative Development
- Project Portfolio Management

The UW-Madison Advantage

Gain career credibility from a world-class university

Whether you are looking to gain a competitive advantage in the labor market; become more valuable in your current position; or transition to a new career, our courses, certificates, and custom programs add credentials and credibility to your work-ready skill set and more:

- Learn from instructors with real-world business experience who will teach you practical ways to apply what you learn back in your workplace
- Open doors and deepen learning through peer-to-peer interactions with people from a variety of industries
- Discover new ways of doing business that raise your value and improve your organization

CONTACT US

800-292-8964 | info@uwcped.org